Pädaste Private Farm House

Stay at Pädaste's cozy and secluded Private Farm House, available in winter as a self-catered private villa accommodation and enjoy Muhu Winter Wonderland, the good care of our chalet girl warrants a most wonderful stay.

The Private Farm House is a historical 18th century log house with a thatched roof, where the caretaker of the estate would convey with the labourers to assign the daily works. After a delicate restoration; the Private Farm House has retained many of its original features and soul, while the quality of accommodation is of a truly high standard.

The Farm House is located in a secluded angle of our property amidst an apple orchard. In the Farm House our guests will be able to enjoy the use of two Master Bedrooms with adjacent bath rooms, The Farm House has a living with a fireplace, a cosy library with veranda and a secluded private garden.

The balcony and the terrace have a magnificent view towards the bay. The Farm House provides very comfortable accommodation for 2 to 6 guests, in addition up to 2 extra beds can be made available in the entertainment room. The Private Farm House comes with a small kitchen, while on request we can offer outside catering.

Staying at Pädaste's Private Farm House allows you to take your time to explore the Winter Wonderland at Muhu Island; be it a private SPA day, horseback riding, guided tour on Muhu and Saaremaa or a nature walk.
